

Lots to Do & BOURBON TOO!

DAY ONE

Kentucky Show! - Welcome to Kentucky! KentuckyShow! is a 32-minute multimedia production that showcases the people, places, sights and sounds of the Commonwealth. Shown on a 4-story Digital Theatre screen in the Kentucky Science Center, KentuckyShow!, narrated by Kentucky native Ashley Judd, gives visitors a sense of what an utterly unique and special place Kentucky is.

Schimpff's Confectionary - At 124-years old, Schimpff's is one of the oldest continuously operated family-owned candy business in the U.S. Located just minutes from downtown Louisville, a stop at Schimpff's is a must to stock up on delicious handmade confections.

Derby Dinner Playhouse - Enjoy a delicious Southern buffet-style dinner and an evening performance at Derby Dinner Playhouse, one of the oldest and largest continuously operating professional dinner theatres in the country. For over 40 years, the theatre has delighted audiences with its productions of Broadway musicals and light-hearted comedies. Derby Dinner Playhouse puts on a professional Broadway style production filled with laughter, mystery, music and dance!

DAY TWO

Moonshine and Madness Tour - Long before Las Vegas acquired the nickname, Louisville enjoyed the dubious reputation as America's Sin City because of the decadence associated with its distilleries, tobacco houses and horse races. Today, ghostly legends from its heyday live on. Treat your group to a tour of the Old Louisville of the Roaring 20s and the Fabulous 30s when flappers, moon shiners and gangsters kept the neighborhood hopping with scandal and intrigue.

Belle of Louisville - Enjoy a scrumptious dinner aboard a treasured National Historic Landmark. The Belle is over 100 years old and is the oldest operating steamboat in the nation. Sit back and take in the marvelous views of Louisville as your cruise along the Ohio River.

Kentucky Peerless Distilling Company- Family owned and operated since 1889, this state-of-the-art distillery in downtown Louisville features the only Bourbon Rickhouse in the city. Learn about the in's and out's of what it takes to make bourbon and moonshine. Groups will also have the chance to taste some of the smoothest 'shine ever in the KY Peerless tasting room.

Dinner at Captain's Quarters - Nestled along the scenic banks of the Ohio River, Captain's Quarters Riverside Grille offers delicious seafood dishes, international cuisine and an array of refined American fare – all served in a picturesque atmosphere. Captain's Quarters Riverside Grille has the ambience, atmosphere and gourmet cuisine to make your experience truly unforgettable. It is more than just riverside dining, it is a dining experience.

Flame Run & Mark Payton Glass Center at Glassworks - Flame Run occupies the hot shop, a welding shop, and operates a glass gallery and gift shop. While the Mark Payton Glass Center also continues to develop "edutainment" opportunities in the Walk-In Workshop, tours, frameworking experiences, and a gallery containing frameworked glass, flat glass and jewelry.

Louisville Mega Cavern - This manmade cavern was once a limestone pit mine. For the past 50 years, this space has served many purposes. Most notably, it would have been the largest civil defense shelter used in the event of a nuclear disaster during the Cuban Missile Crisis. Now, years later, this mine has been turned into a one of a kind underground attraction that includes a historic tram, a zipline tour and a bike park.

DAY THREE

Kentucky Derby Museum and Churchill Downs Backstretch Breakfast - Begin the day at two of the most iconic and beloved Kentucky institutions. Enjoy a traditional Southern breakfast as you watch the morning workouts of some of the finest thoroughbreds in the world. Tours the museum that is dedicated to the "fastest two minutes" in sports,-- the Kentucky Derby.

Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory Tour the World- famous bat factory. Admire the world's largest baseball bat before going inside to see how Louisville Sluggers are made. Have an all-star experience by swinging a bat just like Babe Ruth's, facing down a 90 mph fastball and sharing a dugout with Mickey Mantle.

Muhammad Ali Center - Preserving the legacy of Louisville's most famous native son Muhammad Ali, visitors experience state of the art interactive exhibits and a biographical storyline of Ali's values: respect, confidence, conviction, dedication, spirituality and giving.

Evan Williams Bourbon Experience The Evan Williams Bourbon Experience on Louisville's historic "Whiskey Row," is a 15,000 square foot facility featuring an artisanal distillery, tours and tastings. This state-of-the-art distillery celebrates the legacy of Evan Williams, Kentucky's first distiller and the namesake of Heaven Hill's flagship Bourbon brand.

Dinner at the Claudia Sander's Dinner House - The Claudia Sanders Dinner House where an air of Southern Hospitality and cooking combined with old fashioned, family style service still remain. The restaurant was named for the Colonel's Wife, Claudia, and is sometimes referred to as "The Colonel's Lady."
