

Fall into Fun in Louisville!

DAY ONE

Kentucky Show! - Welcome to Kentucky! KentuckyShow! is a 32-minute multimedia production that showcases the people, places, sights and sounds of the Commonwealth. Shown on a 4-story Digital Theatre screen in the Kentucky Science Center, KentuckyShow!, narrated by Kentucky native Ashley Judd, gives visitors a sense of what an utterly unique and special place Kentucky is.

Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory Tour the World- famous bat factory. Admire the world's largest baseball bat before going inside to see how Louisville Sluggers are made. Have an all-star experience by swinging a bat just like Babe Ruth's, facing down a 90 mph fastball and sharing a dugout with Mickey Mantle.

Frazier History Museum - Roam three floors of history that tell the tales of pivotal moments in history that shaped many nations. Sit back and enjoy one of the many first-person costumed historical interpretations.

Bristol Bar & Grille - The Bristol Bar & Grille opened its first location in September 1977, and it quickly became a favorite local dining destination. Louisvillians came from all over town to enjoy The Bristol's aged choice steaks, pasta, fresh seafood, salads, sandwiches, appetizers—including their famous Green Chili Wontons.

Muhammad Ali Center - Preserving the legacy of Louisville's most famous native son Muhammad Ali, visitors experience state of the art interactive exhibits and a biographical storyline of Ali's values: respect, confidence, conviction, dedication, spirituality and giving.

Evan Williams Bourbon Experience The Evan Williams Bourbon Experience on Louisville's historic "Whiskey Row," is a 15,000 square foot facility featuring an artisanal distillery, tours and tastings. Celebrating the legacy of Evan Williams, Kentucky's first distiller and the namesake of Heaven Hill's flagship Bourbon brand, this immersive tourism experience welcomes groups of all sizes.

Dinner at 4th Street Live - Louisville's premier dining and entertainment district features a mix of many leading national and regional restaurants.

"Dracula" at Actors Theatre - Enjoy an irresistible performance of Bram Stoker's "Dracula" at Actors Theatre. Actors Theatre is known as one of the leading theatres in the U.S. and also the winner of the prestigious Tony Award.

DAY TWO

Kentucky Derby Museum and Churchill Downs Backstretch Breakfast - Begin the day at two of the most iconic and beloved Kentucky institutions. Enjoy a traditional Southern breakfast as you watch the morning workouts of some of the finest thoroughbreds in the world. Tours the museum that is dedicated to the "fastest two minutes" in sports,-- the Kentucky Derby.

Conrad-Caldwell House Museum - Let the Ghosts of the Conrad-Caldwell House welcome you with a "spirited" introduction to the mansion. Then follow in the "footsteps" of the ghosts of Conrad's Castle as you are taken on a tour throughout the mansion and discover their favorite haunts throughout the historic museum.

Belle of Louisville - Enjoy a scrumptious meal aboard a treasured National Historic Landmark. The Belle is over 100 years old and is the oldest operating steamboat in the nation. Sit back and take in the marvelous views of Louisville as your cruise along the Ohio River.

Dinner at Joe Huber's Family Farm - Down home food is waiting for you at Joe Huber's. You won't find food freshly prepared food like you do at Huber's... except maybe at your mother's or grandmother's table! Everything is made from scratch!

DAY THREE

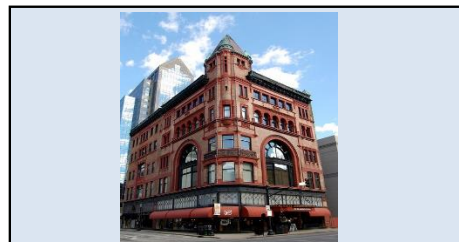

The Café - Come hungry, because The Café offers ample portions of fresh, home-cooked food with a Southern accent served with love in a comfortable, eclectic setting is why The Cafe has gathered loyal customers and friends since 1996.

Louisville Stoneware - Established in 1815, Louisville Stoneware is one of the oldest stoneware manufacturers in the U.S. It has dedicated itself to the tradition and craftsmanship of transforming clay into enduring, functional art for the home, kitchen and garden.

The American Printing House - Founded in 1858, it is the oldest institution in the U.S. devoted to creating products for the visually impaired. Explore artifacts, photos and hands-on displays that showcase the history of Braille from printed publications to recorded books.

The Old Spaghetti Factory - Located in downtown Louisville, they offer a comfortable, casual and relaxed atmosphere in which to dine and unwind with your favorite beverage. After a long day of travel or before your day begins the Old Spaghetti Factory would be glad to accommodate your group.

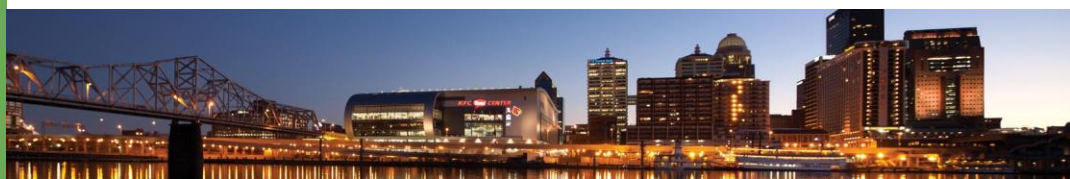

Moonshine and Madness Tour - Before Las Vegas acquired the nickname, Louisville enjoyed the dubious reputation as America's Sin City because of the decadence associated with its distilleries, tobacco houses and horse races. Today, ghostly legends from its heyday live on and explore how flappers, moon shiners and gangsters kept Old Louisville hopping with scandal and intrigue.

Schimpff's Confectionary - Over 100 years old, Schimpff's is one of the oldest continuously operated family-owned candy business in the U.S. Located just minutes from downtown Louisville, a stop at Schimpff's is a must to stock up on delicious hand-made confections.

Derby Dinner Playhouse - Enjoy a delicious Southern buffet-style dinner and an evening performance at Derby Dinner Playhouse, one of the oldest and largest continuously operating professional dinner theatres in the country. For over 40 years, the theatre has delighted audiences with its productions of Broadway musicals and light-hearted comedies. as Derby Dinner Playhouse puts on a professional Broadway style production filled with laughter, mystery, music and dance!

For itinerary and tour planning assistance contact Sandra Robertson with the Tourism Development Department of the Louisville Convention and Visitors Bureau at 800-626-5646 or by email to srobertson@gotolouisville.com